CAPA Welcome Mass and Social

CAPA hosted its annual Welcoming Mass and Social for the Parents of the Class of 2021. After two years of social distancing due to the pandemic, it was a welcome change to gather with fellow CAPA members in the Chaminade cafeteria.

CAPA President Charlie Ruhl and CAPA Moderator Father Garrett Long welcomed the incoming class and led the unveiling of the portrait for the Class of 2021 in its place of honor in the cafeteria.

Jazz Night

CAPA held its ever popular Jazz and Vocal Ensemble on Saturday, February 5, 2022. Approximately 170 members of CAPA and performer parents enjoyed an evening of music, fantastic drinks, appetizers and great company.

CAPA Fall Excursion

This past year the CAPA Fall Excursion departed on Saturday, November 6, 2021 for the Greenport Brewery.

Coach Bus transportation was provided from Chaminade to the Brewery for those that desired.

Waiting for the adventurers were multiple beer samples (quite large “samples”), a welcome speech from owner and Chaminade graduate John Liegey and a gourmet lunch in the Brewery’s own indoor dining area.

Following lunch was a guided tour of the brewery, from the receipt of raw materials, the many different processing steps and the canning process. Finally, a second sampling of many different beers was enjoyed by the group.

CAPA Family Communion Breakfast

On Sunday, November 14, 2021 CAPA hosted the CAPA Family Communion Breakfast in the AAC. The guest speakers were several members of the Dominican Sisters of Mary, Mother of the Eucharist. They provided a great insight into their personal ventures as well as the work that’s been done in their mission of education.
